

Curriculum Vitae

■ Since 2009/2010 Visiting Professorship and guest professor of Semmelweis University of Budapest (integrating research and teaching, international and European medical and public health law, E-health, medical high performance technologies, bioethics, social law).

■ Since 2005/2006 Member of the University Council and jurisprudential lecturer of Steinbeis University Berlin (International, European and German public health and medical law; contract, law, competition and liability law and quality assurance).

■ Since 2000 nomination as a Professor of commercial law (contract, trade and company law) and law of the European Union at the University of Ludwigshafen due to special aptitudes for scientific work; Member of different university boards, such as faculty council, electoral committee as well as expert coordinator for law.

■ 1989 – 2000 lawyer with expertise in jurisprudence in the fields of international law, civil, labour, commercial, contractual, competition law and criminal law, as well as law of the former GDR

■ 1993 – 2000 Jurisprudential lecturer for further education for a physician assistant in the subject law, while I was a managing director and general counsel of the district physician chamber of Palatinate, Neustadt/Weinstraße.

■ 1995 - 2000 Visiting lecturer of the subjects-specific University of Ludwigshafen/Rhine – Business University of Applied Sciences specializing in law (1999 – 2000) (Civil law/introduction in private law) as well as a visiting lecturer of the Protestant subjects-specific University of Ludwigshafen/Rhine – University of Applied Sciences for the social and healthcare sector, specializing in law (professional law, labour und social law); Member of the committees: Convention, council and faculty council.

■ 1991 – 1993 Jurisprudential lecturer at the vocational school of physiotherapy Bad Neustadt/Saale (legal aspects) during the time I was working as a legal advisor of the RHÖN-KLINIKUM AG as well as an assistant to the Board of Directors for staff and hospital, Bad Neustadt/Saale.

■ 1990 Conferral of the doctorate of jurisprudence (DOCTOR IURIS); Johannes Kepler University, University of Linz (Commercial law and securities law, intellectual property law, labour and social law, European Community law, including the law of supranational organizations); Subject of the dissertation: The participation of employees in the supervisory board according to Austrian and German law and in the proposals for a regulation (EEC) and a directive of the Council on the statute of European incorporated companies (Mark: very good).

■ 1985 -1988 articulated clerk in the Notary Ochsenfurt, Notary Franz Brand (estate property transactions including real estate law and real right, corporation law and law of succession).

■ 1979 – 1988 Studies of jurisprudence (DOCTOR IURIS) and of economics, Friedrich Alexander University of Erlangen - Nuremberg and Julius Maximilian University of Würzburg, practical legal preparatory service of the Free State of Bavaria, 1st and 2nd State law examination in Würzburg and Munich, (optional subject: labour and social law).

■ 1978 Conferral of the general higher education entrance qualification (Abitur) at the Siebold Grammar School of Würzburg.